The World's Fair business is growing. Mr. Ferry says he has sold nearly as many tickets up to the present time this month as he did the whole of last month.

The editor of the News will be at Hardinsburg next Monday. If you owe him anything, there never was a better time than now to pay it.
Look at the label on your paper and see how you stand. If you are behind put the money in your pocket and give it to him Monday. Don't forget this, please.

Mr. Watterson is throwing some double headed broadsides into Mr.
Roosevelt and his imperialistic ideas.
If Mr. Watterson knew how little effect they were having on the average voter he would pick up his grip now, and leave for other climes, and not wait until after the election.
Political enthusiasm is all on paper.
It is not in the people.

Judge Parker is reported to have said this: "I do not really care whether I am elected president or not. I did not seek the office and do not particularly want it. I will not do one single thing to help forward my election. If the people want me I shall be glad to serve, but I am not going to ask anybody to vote for me."

If a man don't want a thing and is not interested enough in it to make an effort to get it, he doesn't generally get it. And this indifference on the part of Judge Parker accounts for the indifference on the part of his friends. No wonder Tom Taggart can't get up any enthusiasm in this campaign.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

PICKED UP.

G. W. Dodson, of Frymire, went to Tell City Saturday.

Wm. S. Payne, of Harned, has moved to Long Grove, Hardin county. He has bought a house and lot and blacksmith shop there and will make it his future home. Mr.
Payne is one of our best citizens and we hope he will live long and prosper in his new home.

Hawkins Smith, of Garfield, says he has the finest crop of corn he ever raised. Some of it, he says, will make from 50 to 65 bushels to the acre.

W. H. Gough, of Brandenburg, Meade county, will celebrate his seventy-eighth birthday next month. Mr. Gough was the first sheriff of Meade county, elected in 1851. He succeeded his father, Thomas Jefferson Gough, who was sheriff under the old constitution, when the oldest magistrate on the board took the office of sheriff.
Mr. Gough held the office of sheriff for two years, was then elected county clerk and held that office for sixteen years. Mr.
Gough was one of the most popular men in Meade county and could have been in office yet if he had so desired. He retired from public life several years ago and is yet a pretty active man for his years.

David M. Duncan, the popular editor and publisher of the Meade County Messenger, is now enjoying a new home of his own building. It is a two-story frame, plain comfortable and convenient.
He has a wife and two handsome children, a boy and a girl, to enjoy it with him. David went to Brandenburg several years ago with just enough money to land him in the town. He took charge of the Messenger at a salary of $7.50 a week. He got right down to business and hard work, saved his money, married, bought the Messenger, paid for it and now has a beautiful home, is still running the Messenger successfully and making a good citizen. All of which is a credit to his pluck, energy and hard work.

Henry W. Herndon, the popular host of the Hotel Henderson, was passing up the road the other day and at every station he would look out and say howdy to some of his old acquaintances. Henry is always glad to get back to his old county, see his old friends and say howdy. And everybody seems glad to see Henry, too. Just above Lodiburg lives Mr. A. J.
Keys. He says: "That man can make the best sorghum any man ever put on a biscuit. I remember I went down to his house forty years ago with my father to get him to make our sorghum. He was the first man in the county to make it. His reputation extended far and wide as the best sorghum maker in the country."

Taylor Beard, of Hardinsburg, is making some good improvements to his property near the depot. He is grading the entire front and building a new fence. This will add very much to the attractiveness of his home. This is a commendable public spirit and it's catching. All over our county this improvement and home building is going on to an extent never before seen.

Mrs. Nora Board, formerly of this city, has moved into her handsome new home at Irvington. It is a beautiful place.

MANY CONVERTS.

Elizabethtown, Ky., Sept. 29.—The revival conducted by the Rev. M.
Hau, which had been in progress for a fortnight, closed last night with 125 conversions.

NOT IMPROVED.

The condition of Mrs. Naomi Chappell, of Union Star, who is critically ill, was not improved at the press hour of the News.

At Barboursville.

The Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church in session at Barboursville made the following appointments for this county: Hard-insburg, W. H. Calvert; Sample, supplied by J. E. L. Moore.

BEWLEYVILLE.

Thos. J. Drury, of Louisville, spent Sunday at home.

W. C. Jolly was made school trustee Saturday evening.

Mrs. Alma Weatherford recently visited Miss Mary Payne.

Will Paul was here Sunday the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Paul.

Miss Nell Moorman is the guest of her grandparents and is visiting other relatives.

The visitors of the neighborhood dined with Mr. and Mrs. Z.
T. Stith Sunday.

Misses Ida Davis and Blanche Jolly were visiting friends in Irvington Monday.

Thos. J. Moore, of Hardinsburg, was here Saturday and Sunday visiting old friends.

Mrs. R. M. Jolly, of Irvington, and her guest, Miss Clara Steele, spent Friday at Dewey Heights.

Rnv. Morris preached Sunday morning from the text,—"What is man that thou art mindful of him?"

The excessive heat of last week is followed by cool weather and so it goes. Hadn't we better sell out and go to Oregon?

Fletcher Blanford has finished a fine barn for Hugh Hardaway.
He had Arvin Stith as partner in the work. These two are carpenters who know their business well.

The meeting at Hill Grove has been largely attended. Our people have been well represented, quite a number have joined the church.
The assisting preacher, Rev. Boles, is a very earnest revivalist.

GOLDEN ROD.

PUBLIC SPEAKINGS.

Dr. R. H. McMullen, of this county, Peoples' party nominee for congress in the Fourth congressional district, will speak at Irvington Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock; at Stephens-port Friday afternoon at 1:30; and in this city Friday evening at 7:30.
An equitable division of time will be given the nominee of either of the old parties. Dr. McMullen stands by Jeffersonian principles, and is opposed to Wall street rule, whether it is called Democratic or Republican.

MARRY OCTOBER 17.

Mr. I. B. Richardson and Miss Lottie Compton will be married in the Baptist church at Garfield at 7 o'clock Monday morning, October 17.
After the ceremony the contracting parties will come to this city to take the fast train to St. Louis, for a trip to the World's Fair.

Mr. Richardson and Miss Compton are members of well-known families in the county. The groom is engaged in the mercantile business with his father, A. A. Richardson, while the bride-elect is the daughter of a prosperous farmer.

Pill Pleasure.

If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what pill pleasure is.
These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects.
They do not gripe, sicken or weaken, but pleasantly give tone and strength to the tissues and organs of the stomach, liver and bowels. Sold by All Druggists.

NEW DEPOT.

Mr. T. A. Pedley has received a personal letter from Mr. A. M. Mc-Cracken, general manager of the Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis railway company, to the effect that the officials contemplate erecting a new station just south of the present depot this fall. Every effort is being made to have a union station built on the site. It is under stood that the L. and N. road is the only road not willing to enter the union depot proposition. At any rate the Henderson Route officials have promised a new station for Owensboro this fall.—Tuesday's Owensboro Messenger.

CAMPAIGN OPENS.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 3.—The Democratic campaign opened up today all over the state in earnest. The speakers found large crowds of eager and enthusiastic listeners at all their appointments.

Miss Lizzie Bandy was the guest of the Misses Argabright Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bruner, of Union Star, were at Gid French's Saturday.

Sash Avitt and Andy Keys went to Louisville yesterday with tobacco.

Gola Grant and Estell McKaughan visited relatives at Sample Sunday.

A. B. and Ruth Grant visited Miss Mc-Kaughan, of Stephensport, last week.

Gus Barger returned Saturday from California, where he has been for several months.

Mrs. Joe Fitch and son, James, spent Saturday and Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. Gid French.

Alaska K. Hardin and Miss Myrtle Deacon were the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
C. L. Avitt Sunday.

TARFORK.

in Owensboro recently.

L. H. Taul and family were among the visitors at Ed. Hook's Sunday.

The writer and her "gude old mon" spent Sunday with L. C. Taul and wife.

Mrs. Jane Jackson and Mrs. Obe Mc-Quady visited Mrs. O. W. Rice one day recently.

Jesse Marlow, of Patesville, is at his brother's here in the interest of the timber business.

Mrs. Thurman Hook and children, of Cloverport, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hook.

Dr. Howard was called to Monroe Marlow's Monday to see their grandchild, who has malarial fever.

James Burdett and wife visited relatives Sunday in Pincheco. His father, Rev. Louis Burdett, returned home with them.

KNOCKED MAN DOWN.

Tom Ryan knocked down Joe Mattingly Saturday afternoon in front of the Bank of Cloverport by striking him with his fist. Ryan was provoked with Mattingly over some trifle, but when they saw Marshal DeHaven coming they shook hands and "made up". Marshal DeHaven took charge of both and a hasty session of police court was held. Mattingly was given $2 and costs by Judge Wills and Ryan got off free. Mattingly was drunk and disturbing the peace and was fined "on general principles," explained an officer of the court to the News.

A COMMITTEEMAN.

The bankers of the State hold their twelfth annual convention in St.
Louis today and tomorrow. A number of Breckenridge county bankers and their families will be in attendance.
H. H. Kemper, cashier of the Two States bank at Irvington, whose picture appears above, has been appointed a member of the committee on credentials.

LARGE PEARL FOUND.

David Phelps, a local mussel shell man, found a beautiful pearl in the Ohio river several days ago that weighs sixty grains. It is, by far, the largest and most valuable pearl found in the river at this point.

Chas. Wendelken came down from Louisville Sunday to see his wife, who has been ill for the past two weeks, but whose condition is now much improved.
